Simon Bulteel commented "Jean-Georges and the team at FRS are the reason I set up Cooden Tax Consulting. I met them in a former career when they helped a French subsidiary of a global business I was working for to claim the French R&D tax relief. When they had a UK-based clinical research organisation approach them to register in France, they recommended that they should be claiming UK R&D Tax Relief. FRS asked me to go and meet them and, as they say, the rest is history."
